

23rd INEPS CONGRESS HELD IN PATRAS, GREECE

PROTASI HOSTS THE CONFERENCE FROM APRIL 30TH TO MAY

Protasi, and the Drug Prevention Centre of Achaia hosted the 23rd Congress of INEPS in Patras on the coast of the Adriatic Sea. The theme of the Congress was "The holistic approach of Productive Learning. Has prevention from addictive substances a supportive role to it?"

Delegates from all over Europe and the United States including; Finland, Germany, Sweden, Romania, Lithuania, Spain, France and Portugal attended.

The Congress itself was divided into several components. There were the general meetings featuring a few prominent speakers including the Mayor. There were several workshops and seminars as well as field visits to schools and programs. The participants were also afforded time to present their own projects in an Open Market Place. The Plenary sessions were devoted to INEPS business including the election of new officers.

President – Angela Passa, Greece

Vice President – Heike Borkenhagen, Germany

Secretary – Mirela Bieu, Romania

Treasurer – Petri Hanninen, Finland

Members – Juha Lahtinen, Finland

Merce Marce, Spain

Dennis Huntington, Sweden

It was also decided to hold the next Congress in Vilnius, Lithuania. In between the sessions members had plenty of time for social interchanges. In addition our hosts made time for social and cultural activities that gave the members a real feeling of Greece.
